We consider Jim Lahti and Affiliated Investment Group to be an extension of our own team. For more than a decade, they've financed all of our sophisticated textile cleaning equipment.

Always flexible and easy to do business with, Jim provides us with a variety of competitive rates. The paperwork is completed quickly and effortlessly. AIG also provides advance payments if the equipment company requires a deposit.

Thanks to Jim and AIG, our business operates smoothly and successfully, and we now look forward to their support with upcoming equipment acquisitions for our Atlanta facility.

Sincerely,
Bill and Peggy Kensi
